Asmira Quality at Every Station We Take Over!

At Asmira Marine, we bring our commitment to safety, cleanliness, and professionalism to every fuel station we acquire. Here's what we implement to ensure top-tier service:

- Fuel hoses are thoroughly inspected for potential leaks and replaced when necessary.
- Reel systems have been fully upgraded, and hose lengths extended to efficiently serve larger vessels.
- Nozzles are renewed before each season to eliminate any risk of overflow or splashing.

- Fuel tanks are cleaned at the start of the season to ensure the highest quality and cleanest fuel service.
- Life jackets are supplied and regularly monitored under the supervision of our Occupational Health and Safety department.
- Staff workspaces (containers) were renovated last year—including gutters, doors, windows, and roof insulation—and fully replaced with brand-new units this year.
- The guest welcome areas were branded in line with our corporate identity and completely renewed last season.
- Ropes and hose covers are replaced annually, and the use of absorbent pads is a standard practice unique to Asmira stations.
- During yacht refueling via tanker, essential safety and environmental protection equipment—such as fire extinguishers, hose covers, and containment materials—are used exclusively at Asmira stations.
